ORDER

DENISE COTE, District Judge:

After plaintiffs' counsel failed to demonstrate that service was effectuated in accordance with Rule 4(i)(2), Fed. R. Civ. P., an Order of November 18, 2019, ordered plaintiffs to show cause why this case should not be dismissed for failure to prosecute. On November 21, plaintiffs' counsel filed a letter with this Court, which did not demonstrate that service had been effectuated in accordance with Rule 4(i)(2) or explain plaintiffs' failure to demonstrate that they had properly served process. It is hereby ORDERED that this case is dismissed without prejudice for failure to demonstrate that service was properly effectuated.
